Rick Lozano has some answers, and he is going to help you Find Your Jam! That place where we feel in the groove, connected, creatively innovating while doing the work that matters.

Based on the models presented in his book, Find Your Jam, Rick Lozano will introduce his signature RIFF™ framework as a tool for helping create that momentum. He'll introduce simple strategies that will help your audience:

Modify the beliefs and behaviors needed to create momentum and unlock potential.

Creatively integrate existing talent and resources to deliver new outcomes.

Streamline our focus to accelerate growth.

Eliminate obstacles that inhibit creative flow and innovation.

And we'll have a ton of fun, laughing while we learn.
